

DCM 138

Steel Frames replace

Aluminium that is suitable for inland locations that are nowhere near saltwater

Throughout Time

These chairs have been regarded as a classic shape to our banquet chair collection. Widely accepted universally for its simplicity

STEEL BANQUET CHAIR DCM 138

Dimensions (mm)

455W X 610L X 916H

Seat Depth    455H

Weight

6.5 Kilograms

Specifications

- |                                     |                            |
|-------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 19mm Square Steel Tubing            | Upholstered Backrest Cover |
| 1.2mm wall thickness                | Nylon Bumper and Leg Studs |
| Oven Baked Epoxy Frame Finish       | Polyurethane Moulded Seats |
| Upholstered Backrest                |                            |
| Upholstered Seat with Indent Design |                            |

Features

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| Steel Frames are economical                | Variety of Oven Baked Epoxy Finish for Frames          |
| 1.2mm wall thickness as Industry Standard  | Indent Moulded Seat Design for comfort                 |
| Robotically Welded Frame                   | Polyurethane Moulded Seats for long lasting durability |
| CNC Bent for accuracy and consistency      | No exposed Screws and Slots                            |
| Variety of Backrest Design                 | Stacking Bars for Frame Strength                       |
| Stackable 10 high for storage and movement | Arm Handle for Carrying purpose                        |

Options

Frame Colour, Upholstery of Choice, Backrest Design

